AMUSEMENT NOTES

AT OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

"Uncle Dave Holcomb" Will Be Presented—A Good Production.

The Rev. DeWitt Talmage once said—"The foundation of our country is the country—in it is innocence, good-nature, health, morality; therefore, if all plays before the public, I suggest the pure and wholesome New England type. They are a convincing and convincing something that is strength to the receptive mind, and a person leaving the theatre feeling better for having seen them." This great divine had reference to "The Old Homestead," in which Mr. William Lawrence has succeeded Mr. Denman Thompson for the past five years as "Uncle Josh." This season Mr. Lawrence will appear in another of the same nature, namely, "Uncle Dave Holcomb." No father, mother, son or daughter should miss this great play. In conjunction with the play, as features, Mr. Lawrence has to offer—The Milkmaids' quartet of trained voices, the Country Choir, with an organ especially constructed by Mason & Hamlin of New York; the old-fashioned country dance, by the entire company, a full orchestra of beautiful scenery, a large cyclorama of the "Holcomb Homestead," the illuminated meeting house and a typical New England kitchen. Mr. Lawrence is supported by Miss Marion Shirley, (late "Madge" in "Old Kentucky") and a complete cast. Don't miss this one. At the opera house tonight.

Anty Drudge Dries Miss Prettygirl's Tears.

Anty Drudge—"Why, what's the matter, dear? What are you crying about?"

Miss Prettygirl—"Oh, my beautiful new waist is ruined and it just makes me sick. That clumsy Will Johnson upset a plate of refreshments on it last night at the party, and spoiled all my fun."

Anty Drudge—"And his, too, I'll warrant. But dry your eyes,
